Supremes star Mary dies at 76

MOTOWN legend Mary Wilson, who co-founded The Supremes and was a member of the group until they split up, has died at the age of 76.

The singer passed away at her home in Henderson, Nevada, her publicist Jay Schwartz announced, but he did not confirm the cause of death.

The Supremes were known for hits in the 1960s including Baby Love and You Can't Hurry Love.

The group was founded in Detroit as The Primettes back in 1959, when Mary was just 15.

She was an original member of the group alongside Diana Ross, Florence Ballard and Barbara Martin.

Martin left the group before they hit the big time and The Supremes continued as a trio – becoming Motown's most successful act of the sixties scoring 12 No.1 singles in the US.

Facebook hit by mass action

A MASS legal action has been launched on behalf of at least one million UK Facebook users over claims the social media giant failed to protect their personal data.

The representative claim has been filed with the High Court in London and alleges Facebook allowed a third-party app to access the personal information of users without their knowledge or consent between November 2013 and May 2015.

The legal action has been filed by journalist and writer Peter Jukes.

FURY AT LINEKER LICENCE FEE TWEET

MILLIONAIRE Match of the Day presenter Gary Lineker received a barrage of abuse online after he joked about a rise in the BBC licence fee.

The former England striker, 60 (left), had quote-tweeted a message from the BBC about the hated licence – which we have to pay by law – going up by £1.50 to £159 a year.

Lineker, who was until last year the Beeb's highest paid star on £1.76 million a year, tweeted: "But I've just taken a pay cut," with a tongue-pulling emoji.

But if the telly host – who on top of his MoTD earnings rakes in even more by presenting the Champions League for BT Sport and has been the face of Walkers Crisps since 1994 – thought he was being dry-witted, it fell flat with Twitter users.

Commentator @dean_deano88 said: "Own goal scored there Gary. There are people losing their jobs, kids apparently starving, and you put out a tweet about a pay cut. You still earn in excess of £1m a year."

Referencing that not paying for a BBC licence can land you in jail, Masha added: "I've had NO INCOME since March but still have to pay your bloody wages."

Others branded the jug-eared ex-footballer a "ct", a "twat", "a face for radio" and far worse insults which are too rude to print in a family newspaper.

Last August the BBC issued 4.5 million UK pensioners with a licence fee bill for the first time.

But campaign group Silver Voices says a million pensioners are still to pay, leaving the Beeb out of pocket by £160m.

Two COVID tests for all UK arrivals

ALL travellers entering the UK will be required to take two coronavirus tests while quarantining – to prevent variants from entering Britain.

Arrivals will need to get a test on days two and eight of their 10-day quarantine – whether they are isolating at home or in a hotel.

Health Secretary Matt Hancock (above) said.

The Department of Health said the move would allow authorities to track new cases more effectively.

This is in addition to the current rules which require all travellers arriving in the UK – whether by boat, train or plane – to show proof of a negative COVID-19 test to be allowed entry.

This test must be taken in the 72 hours before travelling, and anyone arriving without one faces a fine of up to £500, with Border Force officials carrying out spot checks.

Travellers must provide contact details and a UK address before they can travel to the place where they plan to self-isolate.

The new testing policy comes amid concern about new variants entering the UK that are more resistant to existing vaccines.

GET YOUR GASMASKS OUT!

DEFENCE Secretary Ben Wallace has warned of a growing threat of international CHEMICAL and BIOLOGICAL attacks with some regimes willing to use such weapons on their own people.

He said these attacks were "what happens in a sort of breakdown of world order", and expressed concern that some states believed it was acceptable to use nerve agents and pathogens against their opponents.

Extremist

Mr Wallace said the internet provided a "turbo boost" for both extremist groups and nation states looking to research and develop such weapons.

Speaking during an interview at the Defence Science and Technology Laboratory at Porton Down, near Salisbury, he said: "Globally, I think there is a growing threat of chemical or biological attack."

"It depends on what is at hand for people using the internet."

"It is, unfortunately, what happens in a sort of breakdown of world order where you see countries like Syria use it on

Mr Wallace referenced the use of chemical nerve agents by Russia in the 2018 poisoning of Russian double agent Sergei Skripal and his daughter Yulia in Salisbury.

Two Russian nationals were accused of travelling to the Wiltshire city to murder Mr Skripal with Novichok.

The Skripals survived the attack, but the incident later claimed the life of Dawn Sturgess after she came into contact with a perfume bottle believed to have been used in the attack and then discarded.

Ms Sturgess' partner, Charlie Rowley, was left seriously ill but recovered.

The Defence Secretary said the attack in Salisbury demonstrated the need for more police officers to be trained to respond to chemical and biological attacks.

Training

Military personnel deployed to regions at risk of chemical or biological attack have to undergo intense training at Porton Down, including how to repair and maintain military gas masks.

Experts discuss next jab group

GOVERNMENT advisers will set out who they think should be next in line for the COVID-19 jab in the coming weeks.

The Joint Committee on Vaccination and Immunisation is currently in discussions over who they believe should be vaccinated next after the initial priority groups.

Plans will be set out by the end of this month or early March, said JCVI member Prof Adam Finn, from the University of Bristol's School of Clinical Sciences.

Meanwhile, Prof Finn encouraged people to get vaccinated when offered, after questions have been raised about the efficacy of the vaccine against new variants of the virus, such as the South Africa variant.

TODAY'S WEATHER

THERE will be further snow showers in the east, while many western parts will be dry with some sunshine but very cold again. It will be less windy.

Temperatures of 1C in London, 1C in Cardiff, 2C in Manchester, 2C in Belfast and 0C in Edinburgh.

SNOW JOKE AS BRITS FREEZE

CHILLY Britain is expected to thaw out – a bit – from today, after being hit by the lowest temperatures for more than a DECADE.

A temperature of -16.7C was recorded in Altnaharra in the Scottish Highlands yesterday morning – the lowest reading in the UK since December 2010.

Yellow warnings remained in place for parts of England, Scotland and Northern Ireland until this morning.

Some COVID-19 vaccination centres and schools were shut and police warned people not to travel.

Biting winds from the east contributed to the sub-zero temperatures, which felt like -10C in parts of Cornwall, which saw some of the strongest winds.

Heavy snow on Monday left 11ins of snow on the ground in Aboyne, Aberdeenshire, and up to 10ins in parts of the east of England.

There have been several road accidents across Scotland as well as "significant disruption" to rail routes, including from Edinburgh to Glasgow.

CURVY Kerry Katona posed in sexy red lingerie – only for the Daily Mail's notorious commentators to post filth about her.

"I'm in full control for the first time in my whole life!"

Kerry also directed followers to a link to her OnlyFans page, for anyone willing to pay its monthly £20 fee.

The comments under the Mail's online article quickly lit up. User thegossip, in London, said: "I always imagine that she smells a bit."

Robert, in Stockport, jibed: "Seen more loads than a cement mixer."

He was joined by loofaker, in Rye, who said: "Fans Only? Should advertise on Crafts, might get more likes. Especially in the Bulldog licking p off of a stinging nettle class."

Cops bust dogging orgy

POLICE broke up a throbbing orgy of more than FIFTY doggers at a notorious outdoor sex site.

Officers moved lockdown rule breakers from the Robertson Car Park in the Gleniffer Braes near Paisley, Renfrews, after locals reported seeing sex people there flouting COVID-19 regulations.

The car park was closed by Renfrewshire Council after cops were getting called out to break-up illegal gatherings there on a regular basis.

But the car park was reopened due to road safety concerns as drivers were parking along the road.

COVID fine for wet wipes buyer naked in his car

A NAKED man sitting in his car in a car park has been slapped with a COVID fine.

Cops spotted the Mazda with its engine running in a closed car park and investigated. They were left shocked when they discovered the male driver, who was alone, was completely naked.

The man claimed he had stumbled across the car park in south Derbyshire by accident after taking several wrong turns on his way to a shop to buy a pack of wet wipes.

However, the man could not provide a reasonable excuse for why he was stark naked, the officers said.

Officers reported that another man, who was clothed, was sitting in a car nearby.

There have been concerns raised by rangers at beauty spots after finding used wet wipes and litter in car parks.

Both men were given COVID fines.

MAXWELL'S DILDOS TO COME OUT IN COURT

GHISLAINE Maxwell's DILDO secrets are set to be spilled in open court.

US District Judge Loretta Preska said meganonce Jeffrey Epstein's alleged madam only had a "minimal"

TRIAL: Maxwell with now dead nonce Epstein privacy interest in keeping a 20-line excerpt from a 2016 deposition under wraps.

The Manhattan judge determined that the excerpt was not about private sexual acts of consenting adults, and that the public therefore deserved to have access to the full testimony.

"There is no reason not to unseal this portion of testimony," Preska wrote.

Charges

"While the court acknowledges Ms Maxwell's interest in a fair criminal trial, Ms Maxwell can argue all her points to the presiding judge in her criminal trial, as she has already."

Maxwell, 59, had argued that the excerpt could undermine the criminal trial she faces as she fights charges that she helped convicted sex offender Epstein.

Preska has already released various parts of Maxwell's deposition from July 22, 2016.

The deposition came from a defamation lawsuit that one of Epstein's accusers, Virginia Giuffre, lodged against Maxwell but has since reached a settlement.

Maxwell pleaded not guilty to charges that she aided Epstein in recruiting three teen girls for him to have sex with in the mid-1990s and lied about her involvement.

The charge addressed Maxwell's denials to ever giving a massage to Epstein or another person, being aware that Epstein had sex toys, and knowing if Epstein had sex with anyone besides herself and two other women in the 1990s and 2000s.

Maxwell has been incarcerated at the Metropolitan Detention Center in Brooklyn since she was arrested in July.

She is also seeking to dismiss all or part of the indictment against her by arguing that prosecutors are targeting her because Epstein is dead and they see her as a "substitute" to get justice for his acts.

In August 2019, while awaiting his trial on sex trafficking charges, Epstein committed suicide in Manhattan jail.

Will: I want to look really bad in Corrie

CORONATION Street has signed up Will Mellor to play an "out and out baddie".

The ITV soap said the actor, 44, will show up in Weatherfield as "drugs lord" Harvey next month.

Mellor (above) said: "I'm honoured to be asked to come into Coronation Street, it's such an iconic show and has been a huge part of my family life."

"When I started acting 32 years ago it was my mum's dream for me to be in Corrie, so I'm happy to finally be able to make it come true."

"It's a Manchester institution and, as a Manchester actor, this is definitely a box ticked."

He added: "Harvey is the first out and out baddie I've ever played. I'm looking forward to getting my teeth into the character and making some waves."

Man on murder rap after body found in bath

A MAN has been charged with murder after the discovery of a body in a bath.

West Midlands Police said officers were called to a house in Holly Road, Handsworth, Birmingham, at around 9am on Sunday.

The force said a man, believed to be in his 20s, was found in a bath with multiple serious injuries.

He was pronounced dead at the scene but has not yet been formally identified.

Police said a man was arrested a few miles away later on Sunday morning, on train tracks near Wigmore Lane in West Bromwich.

On Monday night, the force's Homicide Unit charged David Swaby with murder.

Swaby, 33, of Holly Road, Handsworth, is due to appear at Birmingham Magistrates' Court.

TWEET SUCCESS: Mary (right) hailed for 'best ever line in soap'

CORONATION Street viewers spluttered into their tea when much-loved oddball Mary Taylor started talking about MUFF.

They couldn't cope as Mary – played by Patti Clare – raved about her visit to Muff, in the Republic of Ireland.

The brilliant Corrie writers clearly had a field day with the episode, with Mary and Tracy McDonald – played by Kate Ford – tackling a discussion on feminism.

Things took a turn when Tracy questioned: "Have YOU ever slept with a woman?"

Mary hit back: "You obviously haven't heard about my trip to Muff, County Donegal."

Hilarious

"But I'll set the scene – I was wearing the salopettes."

"And as the clock struck 12, very little else."

Flocking to Twitter, viewers praised the hilarious moment – with Corrie quickly trending on the platform.

One penned: "The best line in a soap award ever, goes to the legend @APattiClare for her tale about her trip to muff...

"I will never look at salopettes in the same way again!!! #corrie #coronationstreet."

"#Corrie cracking me up tonight Rita with her evaporating drink and Mary with her muff county," agreed another.

"Mary's trip to muff and Gail looking for her Lost Fanny – the writers are having a field day right now! #Corrie, a follower commented."

1 IN 10 GENERATION Z TEENS DID HARD DRUGS

ONE in ten teenagers have tried hard drugs such as cocaine, ecstasy and ketamine, a study into the behaviours of Generation Z has found.

Nearly a third (31%) had tried cannabis and 10% had tried harder drugs by the age of 17, according to research from University College London's (UCL) Centre for Longitudinal Studies.

The study suggests that rates of drug use remained similar among 17-year-olds, regardless of their parents' educational backgrounds.

But teenagers whose parents had at least a degree were more likely to binge drink than those whose parents had lower level qualifications, it found.

Researchers analysed data from nearly 10,000 individuals across the UK in the Millennium Cohort Study, a nationally representative study of teenagers born around 2000.

When participants were 17 years old in 2018-19, they were asked questions about drug taking, binge drinking and smoking, as well as assault, shoplifting and vandalism.

Death Row killer dies in hospital

A MAN on Death Row for killing 11 women and having sex with their corpses has died of natural causes in a prison hospital.

Anthony Sowell, 61 (above), who earned the nickname "Cleveland strangler" for the murders, was convicted and sentenced in 2011 for the slayings.

He had a terminal illness and died at Franklin Medical Centre in Columbus, Ohio, officials said.

Relatives of Sowell's victims were relieved to hear of his death.

Donnita Carmichael, daughter of victim Tonia Carmichael, said: "I am glad he is dead. God made it happen. I will never, ever, ever forgive him."

Joann Moore, whose sister Janice Webb was also killed by Sowell, added: "We can go on because he's dead. We don't have to hear about him any more."

The remains of the 11 women were found by police at Sowell's home in Cleveland in October 2009 as police were investigating him over a rape case.

BOFFINS have made an alarming discovery – living near street lights can give you CANCER.

Researchers in the US claim that living near outdoor light sources, such as street lamps and neon signs, may increase a resident's risk of thyroid cancer by 55%.

The illuminating new "light pollution" study was published in the American Cancer Society journal, Cancer.

Dr. Qian Xiao and his team used data provided by the National Institutes of Health and the American Association of Retired Persons, from 464,371 adult participants in a 13-year diet and health survey.

They also took note of the individuals' residences and whether or not they developed cancer over time.

NAKED WOMAN ATTACKS MAN WITH PITCHFORK

By BRAD CHADWICK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A HOMEOWNER had a terrible start to the day when a naked, mud-caked woman burst into his house and stabbed him with a PITCHFORK!

Madison Snyder forced open the door of the man's home in the wee small hours while armed with the gardening fork and attacked the owner, who had come to investigate.

The 31-year-old suspect was not known to any of the residents in the home.

The victim received serious but non-life threatening injuries during the attack.

Snyder then fled to a nearby residence and was let inside when the homeowner thought she needed assistance.

When cops arrived they were also attacked by "gibbering" Snyder.

Officers had to use a Taser during the arrest, but it did not seem to have any effect on her.

Three deputies were assaulted while trying to take Snyder into custody.

The deputies are all fine, though one was treated at the hospital and later released.

Snyder, of Courtland in Virginia, was subdued by being repeatedly twatted with batons.

She is charged with

Tanya Lord, of Derrylodge Manor in Lurgan, Northern Ireland, is charged with causing a man to engage in a sexual act without his consent.

She is alleged to have caused the man to "insert his penis into her vagina" in circumstances where he did not consent.

Cops hunt water poison hacker

A HACKER broke into a city's water supply computers and tried to POISON thousands of members of the public.

A police spokesman said someone remotely accessed a computer system that controls the Florida city of Oldsmar's water treatment facility.

The unidentified person increased the amount of sodium hydroxide distributed into the city's drinking water to a "dangerous" level, cops said.

The chemical – also known as lye – is used in small amounts to control the water's acidity but can be deadly if ingested in large quantities.

A worker at the plant supplying the city of 15,000 people immediately noticed the change and quickly reversed it.

THERE was much wailing and gnashing of teeth at Sport Towers when we realised we'd MISSED International Chocolate Cake Day.

The event, held every year to promote the virtues of, er, well, chocolate cake, fell on January 27 this year.

Events included competitive chocolate cake eating and recipe sharing – all done online thanks to the pandemic.

But due to a technical hiccup (the features editor getting drunk and forgetting to put it in the diary) we forgot to celebrate it at Sport HQ.

But not to worry.

Because among the civilised nations of the world, EVERY day is Chocolate Cake Day.

So as a belated celebration, here are some snaps of babes baking cakes.

Cleric warns COVID vaccine 'turns you gay'

A POTTY cleric in Iran told his followers the COVID-19 vaccination turns people into "homosexuals" – which is punishable by death in the Asian country.

Ayatollah Abbas Tabrizian made the outrageous claims on the social media platform Telegram.

"Don't go near those who have had the COVID vaccine," the radical Islamist wrote to his nearly 210,000 followers. "They have become homosexuals."

Tabrizian, whose followers refer to him as ayatollah, has a history of promoting bigotry and false information about Western medicine.

Last year, the totalitarian burned a western medical textbook in a videotaped ceremony, claiming that "Islamic medicine" had made such books "irrelevant".

Veteran gay rights campaigner Peter Tatchell said: "He's demonising both the vaccination program and LGBT+ people without a shred of evidence."

15 dead in spate of US avalanches

THE US had its deadliest week of avalanches in more than a century when 15 people were killed.

It included avalanches in Colorado, Montana, Utah, California, Alaska and New Hampshire.

"This has been a difficult week for a lot of people in our community, in Colorado and across the country," the Colorado Avalanche Information Center said in a Facebook post announcing the grim milestone.

Multiple fatalities were caused by single avalanches in Utah, Alaska and Colorado.

The most recent one in Utah killed four skiers in Millcreek Canyon.

Four other skiers survived the ordeal.

BEAST KEPT DEAD GIRLFRIEND IN KITCHEN BIN

A MAN kept a body believed to be his missing girlfriend in his kitchen BIN.

John Meadows, 58, was arrested on charges of murder, abuse of a corpse and tampering with physical evidence.

The remains are thought to belong to his 57-year-old girlfriend, Donna Lay, cops say.

A neighbour in Williamsburg, Kentucky, had reported Lay missing after not seeing her in several weeks.

Gunshot

Police interviewed Meadows (above) about her disappearance the following day.

"His story didn't make a whole lot of sense," Williamsburg Police Chief Wayne Bird said.

Bird said they then obtained a search warrant for Meadows' apartment, where a trained cadaver dog alerted officers to the remains.

By SUZIE SHELTON

"After the dogs alerted, we opened the garbage can and there was a human body inside," Bird said.

The medical examiner has yet to confirm the identity of the remains, but an autopsy has determined the cause of death was a single gunshot wound to the head.

Authorities believe Meadows had been living with the remains for three weeks before the gruesome discovery.

Police also learned Meadows was searching the internet for information on how a body decomposes and had "a large number of air fresheners" to try to disguise the odour.

A spokesman for the local council in Williamsburg said: "Our thoughts and prayers go out to the dead lady's family."

"If nothing else, this must be seen as a clear violation of recycling protocols."

MAN KILLED BY EXPLODING BABY SHOWER CANNON

A MAN died when he was shot by a CANNON at a baby shower.

Evan Silva, 26, was struck by metal shrapnel when the novelty cannon – meant to celebrate the occasion – exploded at a property in Gaines Township, Michigan.

Silva, who was standing about 10 feet away, was the only person at the party struck by the shrapnel.

He was taken to a hospital in Flint but could not be saved, according to the police report.

Investigators suspect gunpowder that was loaded into the cannon caused it to blow up.

When fired successfully, the cannon, which was bought at auction by the homeowner, produces a bright flash and loud bang.

The homeowner fired it several times before it killed Silva.

AirPod sticks in the throat!

A MAN went to bed listening to music on his Apple AirPods – and woke up with one of the wireless headphones unknowingly inside him.

Brad Gauthier is now warning other AirPods users about his experience after the rare medical mishap sent him to the emergency room.

Gauthier had spent about an hour shovelling snow from his driveway in Massachusetts with the bud-style earphones lodged in his throat.

When he went inside to take a drink of water, the liquid wouldn't go down.

"I felt a distinct blockage in the centre of my chest," Gauthier said.

Doctors used a long, thin tube to retract the two-inch long AirPods.

SNOW JOKE AS CAR CRASH TRIO BUSTED

THREE stropky millennials were busted after they allegedly demanded that cops shovel their trapped car out of snow!

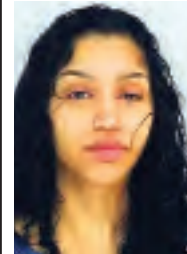

The vehicle got stuck when the driver lost control and ploughed into a mound of snow.

The car's occupants – a woman and two men – were unable to free the car as traffic became blocked in Framingham, Massachusetts.

Police said the suspects grew angry when an officer told them they had to call a tow truck and one cop was hit in the stomach.

Driver Bianca Torres (left), 19, Michael Rodriguez, 21, and Nathaniel Chickering, 18, were all charged with disorderly conduct.

Rodriguez was also charged with assault and battery on a police officer and Chickering was charged with carrying a dangerous weapon after a knife was found on him during a search.

CARDI B: IS THIS THE MUCKIEST POP VID EVER?

FANTASTIC IN PLASTIC: Cardi's a see-through sensation

IS it a pop video or a PORN MOVIE?

That's what fans were asking when the promo for Cardi B's new song, Up, dropped.

The Grammy-winning 28-year-old left nothing to the imagination in a plastic see-through outfit.

She also fondled a SEX TOY and got enmeshed in a LESBIAN MERMAID orgy.

Cardi - real name Belcalis Almánzar - launches into the energetic track, as she struts around a cemetery in her provocative funeral look.

She breaks up a make-out session happening just feet away, as she moves in on her next husband-to-be while rapping in her signature raunchy style.

Cardi recently said on YouTube that she "wanted a more hood song", adding:

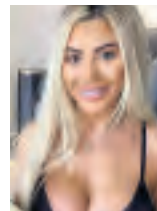

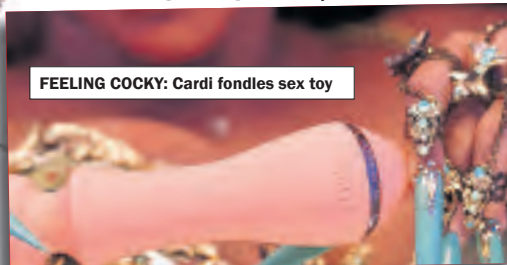

"I thought that my last song was more sexy... I wanted to do something more gangster, more cocky."

In a new interview with Zane Lowe on Apple Music 1, the star admitted that she was feeling "nervous" about releasing the music video - which has already sparked a buzz among her fans and detractors.

She said: "I'm good, but I'm very nervous. Oh my gosh. This week has been a really... Not a bad week, but a bad week for my nerves. I've been waking up early. I haven't been able to eat, I've been like... Well, I don't know."

Not everyone was impressed. One online commentator spat: "It's filth. You can almost smell her parts."

Chloe puts sex at top of her 'important' list

CHLOE Ferry proclaimed sex is 'the most important thing ever' in a relationship.

The much-altered Geordie Shore star made her assertion during the latest reality show offering, Celebs Go Dating.

Chloe, 25, did not mince her words during her romantic date with beau Kieran Bishop, as the pair discussed what they are both like when in a relationship.

Chloe asked Kieran: "What are you looking for in a relationship?"

Kieran replied: "Respect is a massive thing, loyalty."

Chloe agreed, before Kieran added: "Sex is a big thing as well."

Chloe declared: "Sex is the most important thing ever, that's how you make the baby."

"I think you're a very affectionate person, aren't you?"

She added: "It takes me a while, I've got to trust them. I enjoy kissing, but I don't want it to be rushed."

Chloe (above) warned Kieran she would likely be going on dates with other guys after him.

PERV CAGED FOR SEX WITH A COURGETTE

A PERVERT who shoved a courgette down the front of the leggings he was wearing before "parading" in front of shoppers has been jailed.

The prolific sex offender was spotted in High Town, Hereford, by horrified and disgusted shoppers - including parents with their children - on a Saturday afternoon in the run-up to Christmas.

than an hour before he was arrested by police.

Cathlyn Orchard, prosecuting, told Hereford Crown Court that Chambers had a "long history of indecent exposures" which resulted in prison time and sexual harm prevention orders, but that did not seem to be a deterrent.

She said Chambers was spotted leaning against a market stall pole by an off-duty police officer.

He was wearing a coat, tight leggings and a face mask. The police officer's wife said she could see a large, long item through the leggings which Chambers kept touching.

He kept trying to make eye contact with the police officer's wife, as well as other women in the city centre, with lots of "distressed" shoppers also noticing Chambers.

Chambers, who had only been released from prison two months before the offence, then started "parading himself", Miss Orchard said.

Police turned up around an hour later to arrest him and he then removed the courgette which was tied around his waist with string.

When officers searched his car, they found more courgettes.

Chambers, of Beaumaris Houses in Cwmbran, Gwent, pleaded guilty to one public order offence and one count of outraging public decency.

He was sent to prison for eight months and his current sexual harm prevention order was modified.

It also came to light that Chambers had recently committed two similar acts in Swansea and Cardiff, but only received a warning from police in South Wales.

Mobility scooter man 'flashed' at teenage girl pals

POLICE are investigating after a man on a red mobility scooter exposed himself to two female teenagers as they walked together in a city centre.

The friends, aged 18 and 16, were walking along the Cornmarket in Derby - close to the Primark store.

Cops say they were approached by a man on a mobility scooter. He then indecently exposed himself to the two pals.

He is thought to be about 60 years old.

The teenagers walked away from the man and immediately reported the incident to two patrolling officers nearby.

The officers then searched the area but did not find the man.

The offender is described as white with a tanned complexion and having short, grey hair under a grey flat cap.

With 10 dead in three the hunt was on to catch a deadly sniper

AT 3.19am on October 24, 2002, FBI agents closed in on a dark blue 1990 Chevy Caprice. Inside the vehicle lay what a petrified North America was calling 'the Beltway Snipers' – thought to be responsible for the deaths of 10 entirely innocent people. They had been randomly gunned down and three more critically injured while going about their everyday lives – mowing the lawn, pumping petrol, shopping or reading.

Among the victims was FBI intelligence analyst Linda Franklin, who was felled by a single bullet while leaving a home improvement store in Virginia with her husband. The massive investigation into the sniper attacks was led by the Montgomery County Maryland Police Department, with the FBI and many other law enforcement agencies playing a supporting role.

That morning, the three-week hunt for the snipers had quickly come to an end, when a team of Maryland State Police, SWAT officers, and agents from the FBI Hostage Rescue Team arrested the sleeping John Allen Muhammad and Lee Boyd Malvo without a struggle.

Muhammad, then 41, was a Gulf War veteran born John Allen Williams, who changed his name in 1987 after joining the Nation of Islam.

His sidekick, Malvo, was just 17 when the FBI slapped cuffs on him...

DEATH TRAP: The modified car used by snipers during their reign of terror

By KOURTNEY KENNEDY
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A FEW hours earlier, at 11.45pm, their car – bearing the New Jersey licence plate NDA-21Z, which had been widely publicised on the news that day – had been spotted at a rest stop car park.

Within the hour, cops swarmed the scene, setting up a perimeter to check out any movements and make sure there would be no escape.

What evidence experts found there was both revealing and shocking.

The car had a hole cut in the boot near the number plate so that shots could be fired from within the vehicle.

It was, in effect, a rolling sniper's nest.

Also found in the car were the Bushmaster .223-calibre rifle that had been used in each attack, a rifle's scope for taking aim and a tripod to steady the shots.

The backseat had had the sheet metal removed between the passenger compartment and the boot, enabling the shooter to get into the boot from inside the car.

The Chevy Caprice owner's manual was also found with written impressions of one of their ransom demand notes.

The digital voice recorder used by both Malvo and Muhammad to make multi-million dollar extortion demands was also recovered from the car.

And agents found a laptop, stolen from one of the victims, containing maps of the shooting sites and getaway routes from some of the crime scenes, along with maps and walkie-talkies.

Malvo and Muhammad were convicted at trial or pled guilty in multiple court cases in Maryland and Virginia.

Both were sentenced to life without parole while Muhammad also received the death penalty.

Bullet

It had all started as just another autumn evening in America's capital – until a sniper's bullet struck down a 55-year-old man in a car park in Wheaton, Maryland.

By 10am the next morning, on October 3, 2002, four more people within a few miles of each other had been similarly murdered.

The attacks were soon linked, and a massive multi-agency investigation was launched, led by the Montgomery County Police Department in Maryland.

Within days, the FBI had 400 agents around the country working on the case.

A toll-free number was set up to collect tips from the public, with teams of new agents in training helping to work the hotline – although to no avail.

However, the big break in the case came, ironically, from the snipers themselves.

On October 17, 2002, a caller claiming to be the sniper phoned in to say that he was responsible for the murder of two women – although only one was killed – during the robbery of an off licence in Montgomery, Alabama, just a month earlier.

That set in motion a chain of events that led to the capture of Muhammad and Malvo four days later, ending 23 days of random attacks in the Washington D.C. area.

Evidence

Investigators soon learned that a crime similar to the one described in the call had indeed taken place, and that fingerprint and ballistic evidence were available from the case.

An agent gathered the evidence and quickly flew to Washington, arriving on October 21.

While the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives handled the ballistic evidence, agents took fingerprint evidence to the FBI laboratory.

The next morning, the fingerprint database produced a match – a magazine dropped at the crime scene bore the fingerprints of Lee Boyd Malvo from a previous arrest in Washington State.

And the arrest record provided another vital lead, mentioning a man named John Allen Muhammad.

Work with ATF agents revealed that Gulf War veteran Muhammad had a Bushmaster .223 rifle in his possession – a federal violation since he'd been served with a restraining order to stay away from his ex-wife.

That allowed the Feds to charge him with federal weapons violations and with Malvo clearly connected, the FBI and ATF jointly obtained a federal material witness warrant for him.

Meanwhile, on October 22, agents searched their criminal records database and found that Muhammad had registered a blue Chevy Caprice with the licence plate of NDA-21Z in New Jersey.

Arrest

That description was given to the news media and shared far and wide, leading to the eventual arrest of the two snipers.

Many relatives of Muhammad's victims had travelled thousands of miles to see his final moments.

Sentenced to death in 2003, it was now six years later and his last appeal for clemency had been dismissed.

On the evening of November 10, 2009, Muhammad would finally pay the ultimate price for his crimes.

Prosecutors said his and his sidekick's shootings were part of a plot to extort $10 million from local and state governments, although this never properly ascertained.

He had a final meal but demanded the items eaten stayed private.

And he made no comment whatsoever when asked if he had any final words.

Six short minutes after he was injected, Muhammad was dead. It was finally over.

SICK TEENS CHOPPED UP PAL IN THE WOODS

SEEN LEAVING IN MUSTANG:
Brennan Thomas

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

TWO teenagers have been arrested after a man's dismembered body was found in a wooded area.

The body of 20-year-old Dylan Dakota Whetzel was found hacked to pieces and strewn over a "wide area" in a woodland of Spotsylvania County, Virginia.

Brennan Thomas, 19, and Dominic McCall, 18, have been arrested on multiple charges – including defilement of a dead body, concealing a body and three related conspiracy charges.

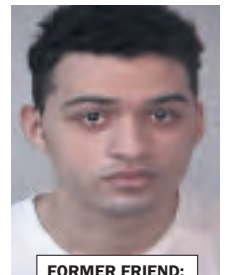

It's believed they both knew the victim and sources described them as "former friends".

Blood

Maj. Troy Skebo said Spotsylvania Sheriff's office received a 911 call saying a body was in the area where a Ford Mustang had been seen earlier.

According to Skebo, witnesses claimed to have seen Thomas and McCall leaving in the Mustang before deputies responded and found Whetzel's body parts.

Skebo said detectives found the Mustang and possible evidence related to the death –

FORMER FRIEND:
Dominic McCall

believed to be blood and gore belonging to Whetzel – was found in the boot of the vehicle.

Detectives have ruled Whetzel's death to be a homicide.

But neither Thomas or McCall has so far been charged with murder.

Woman terrified by 'shush' intruder

COPS found a nude male sitting on a sofa after being called to a house by a terrified woman who had locked herself in her attic with a two-year-old child.

The woman, who found the intruder in her bathroom after she'd had a nap, said he placed his finger over his mouth and went "shush" before advancing towards her.

James Horton, 29, of St. Joe in Searcy County, Arkansas, faces felony charges of residential burglary and possession of a firearm by a felon.

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

IT snowed a bit in London earlier this week. Not that you would have known, because it's not like the entire mediascape declared a National Winter Covid NHS Crisis Emergency Disaster. Good job there's nothing else important going on...

Jab's a good 'un?

IT'S undeniably great news that over twelve million people have had their first Covid jab.

And if you haven't had yours yet, I wouldn't worry – there's a needle heading for your arm some day soon.

The jabs are FREE and available to everyone in the UK.

Literally "everyone" – as on Monday it was revealed that the government had made the decision to vaccinate any and all illegal immigrants who are residing here.

These are people who have entered or remained in the country without permission or papers and often shy away from hospitals and GPs and other officialdom for fear of being flagged up to the Feds.

The government has vowed that is NOT the case during the pandemic, as there is little point in the rest of us getting jabbed if a sizeable number of people do not do so for fear of being deported.

All that would do is give this sodding virus more air to breathe, more scope to spread – and more lives to take.

So getting those syringes into as many arms as possible, as quickly as possible, makes perfect sense no matter who those arms belong to.

Fair enough.

But we're always being told there is no real way of measuring the number of illegals in this country.

Which is hardly a surprise when, even in this weather, come daily reports of dinghies landing on the Kent coast and stowaways continuing to tumble out of the back of cross-Channel trucks despite the incredible risks.

So my jaw dropped when an estimate fell out of the mouth of some beardy wonk from Amnesty UK when he was given some live TV time to slag off the government by the BBC.

From the "too little, too late, it's not enough" department – copyright, under-pressure Labour leader Keir Starmer – Mr Beardy said we were looking at around 1.3 MILLION illegals.

To put that into perspective, that's enough to fill the seats of Manchester United's Old Trafford stadium over SEVENTEEN times.

Yes, everyone should be vaccinated for all our sakes.

But it won't just be "how did this happen" being asked when the end of this epidemic finally comes.

It'll also be: WTAF?

LIKE SIX OR SEVEN OTHERS, AS REPORTED BY THE COMMUNITY, I stayed up late on Sunday night to make a determined effort to watch the Super Bowl.

I wanted to learn more about a game I'd always considered was a bit like rugby but for men afraid of being tackled and needing to wear body armour.

And what did I learn? Nothing.

Other than it's still a bit like rugby for men afraid of being tackled who need to wear body armour.

A MAN has handed himself in to cops after allegedly masturbating while waiting in line at a fast food restaurant.

The 29-year-old man entered the eatery in Ararat, in Australia's Victoria state.

While waiting in line to order, he allegedly inappropriately touched himself while looking at a female staff member.

He then attempted to place an order – but staff refused to take his money until he washed his hands.

The man was then seen going into the restaurant's bathroom before returning to order.

He left the restaurant with his food shortly after.

Police released CCTV of a man (above) they believed could assist with their inquiries.

He has since handed himself in to police and is being questioned in connection with the alleged incident.

Police say they are now not looking for anyone else in relation to the incident.

The offenders used a pole to smash their way into the Airport West Sexyland in Melbourne, Australia, at about 2.45am before they abducted 'Kitty'.

As they fled with the five-foot lifelike doll, its head fell off in the Sexyland car park.

The men drove away in a white Ford Ranger pickup with stolen number plates.

Theft is common at adult entertainment stores and demand for dolls like 'Kitty' and similar goods has soared during the pandemic.

A LESBIAN schoolteacher is accused of using 'sex appliances' during a two-year sexual relationship with a teen girl student.

Hayley Close Hallmark, 35, was arrested and charged with lewd and lascivious conduct with a student by an authority figure.

Hallmark, who teaches history at Ruckel Middle School in Niceville, Florida, is being held in Okaloosa County Jail.

The student, now 17, confided with a high school teacher about the relationship with Hallmark.

The teacher reported it to authorities.

Sexting

When interviewed, the student told an Okaloosa County sheriff's deputy that the relationship started in August 2017.

It began with texting, evolved into sexting and then became physical in 2018, according to court documents.

The relationship involved fingering, mutual oral sex and "some use of sex appliances".

The student said she and Hallmark had multiple sexual encounters in their classroom and at each of their homes.

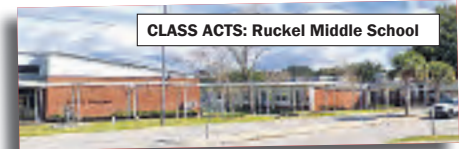

She allowed an investigator access to her mobile phone, where he confirmed there was an inappropriate relationship, according to court documents.

Hallmark was put on administrative leave.

She also coaches the school's dance team and is co-coach of the girls' soccer team.

While working in Pensacola in 2011, Hallmark was Escambia County's social studies teacher of the year.

Hookers slam 'disaster' move

AMSTERDAM'S hookers have spoken out after the city council agreed to move the red-light district to an eerie "erotic centre" in the suburbs.

The proposal, which was put forward by the city's mayor Femke Halsema, is supposedly a "tourism reset" to attract a different personality of holiday-goers.

But Felicia Anna, Red Light United's chairwoman, raged: "This will lead to sex workers choosing to work illegally underground, rather than in this new erotic centre nobody asked for, and will therefore make them more vulnerable to violence and human trafficking."

She also said there would be a "disastrous impact on our work and income, since most sex workers don't want to move there".

#THE CRAZIEST VIRALS OUT THERE

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

I'M 19 and fascinated by older women. A few weeks ago I was in my local when I noticed an attractive brunette at the bar.

I offered her a drink and we chatted for a while before ending up at her place for a few more drinks.

She told me she was divorcee of 46, but she didn't look it. She had massive 34EE tits which I couldn't wait to get my gob round.

She got out my hard shaft and began sucking until I blew my load in her face. She then grabbed my hand and led me to the bedroom, threw me on the bed and stood frigging her wet pussy.

Then she jumped on top of me and went for gold as she rode my rod. She came four times in 20 minutes.

She brought me hard again in no time with a sloppy old tit-wank and some oral and then demanded it doggy-style.

Now she's offered me money to do her regularly.

Should I go for it?

Bexie says...
YOU'D be a fool to miss out on a golden opportunity to fulfil your fantasy – and earn a few quid!

I'm a 22-year-old single girl and I've been having driving lessons for six months. My instructor is a hunky guy in his 30s and we have been having sex after my lessons finish.

We normally do it in the back of his car but it's a bit cramped so once or twice he's taken me to the flat of a friend.

He took me there recently and we had a steamy two-hour session. He's very well-endowed – about nine inches erect – and he knows how to use it.

One night after a lesson we went to the flat and I went down on him and he talked dirty as I chomped on his cock. After that I got on all fours and he slipped into me from behind. He kept going for 20 minutes until he shot his load and gave me a massive orgasm.

Anyway, as I said, we've been doing this for a bit and now I've found out he's married with kids.

Am I a bad person?

Bexie says...
NO. He's in the wrong.

I've been married for 12 years and my wife and I have always had good sex.

But one fantasy I've always wanted to realise is to watch her being taken by a young stud and, until recently, she'd always been against it.

A couple of weeks ago, to my astonishment, she said OK. On the big night she wore a tight blouse, a short black skirt and stockings and suspenders.

The plan was for her to go to a club in town, pick up a fella and bring him back home. I would then watch from the wardrobe as she was taken by him.

It wasn't long before I heard a taxi pull up and saw the wife getting out with a young man. I ran upstairs and hid, waiting for the show to begin. They came in and she pushed him back on the bed, slowly pulling down his trousers and rubbing his cock. He was soon rock hard so she took him in her mouth and gobbled him off.

After a few minutes he picked her up, placed her on all fours on the bed and began pounding away at her doggy-style.

At this point she looked round to where I was hiding and, between her moans of pleasure, gave me a saucy wink as the stud rammed away.

I was very turned on by it but I'm a bit put out that she seemed to enjoy it so much.

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week BEXIE WILLIAMS has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Should I dump my wife to move in with sexy teen?

Dear Bexie,

I'm a 45-year-old married man and I thought I knew all there is to know about sex until I started a wild affair at work.

The girl in question is just 19 and we hit it off the day she started her new job.

She's gorgeous and looks much older than she is, and although all the lads in the office fancy her like mad, she seems to have eyes only for me.

I was very flattered, of course, and one day I invited her to lunch.

We chatted about everything and ended up kissing and cuddling in my car.

One thing led to another and before I knew it I was on top of her making love.

I'm afraid I was so turned on by her fit body that I ejaculated after just a minute or so and I felt really embarrassed, but she told me not to worry, adding that she was sure it would be better next time.

Anyway, two nights later I offered to drive her home but she suggested we go to a hotel instead.

My missus was staying at her sister's so we got ourselves a room, and once inside she started to strip off slowly.

By the time she got down to her skimpy lace undies I had a hard-on. She grabbed my cock and sucked me off.

After a while she got on all fours and let me enter her from behind.

I'm pleased to say that I managed to last for a full 45 minutes on the job before emptying my load inside her – a record for me.

Since that night we've been meeting regularly twice a week and every time the sex seems to get better.

This girl may be just a teenager but she's fantastic in bed.

Now I'm thinking it's time to leave my wife and set up home with this bird. What do you think?

GJ, Dorset

Bexie says...

YOU would be taking a massive risk due to the age gap. I reckon it won't be a long-term relationship.

Dear Bexie,

I AM shagging four different men at the moment and none of them is my husband. He started losing interest in sex a year ago.

Now I've picked up these fellas and getting it regularly.

I realise what I am doing is wrong but I don't know what to do because I love the sex. What should I do?

Anon, Canterbury

Bexie says...

IF you love the sex, the answer's easy.

Dear Bexie,

I'M 28 and after splitting from my husband, I was a bit of a recluse.

Then a friend rang to say that she'd fixed me up with a date. She told me that the guy worked in her office and was a real hunk. He was also five years younger than me so I thought I'd give it a go.

She arranged for us to meet in a pub and we had a really good night. At closing time he asked if he could take me home. Once back at my house I was soon naked on the sofa and had the most enormous penis I'd ever seen in my hands.

I was soon riding him for all I was worth.

I was bouncing up and down on his shaft as he tweaked my nipples. I had the most amazing orgasm but this hunk hadn't finished.

Soon I was on all fours and he was ramming hard into me. Again he brought me to a climax but he seemed insatiable so I wrapped my lips round his bellend and brought him off.

We've been seeing each other ever since. But now my husband wants a reconciliation. What should I do?

RN, Dorset

Bexie says...

FK the fella – and tell your ex to fk off!

Widow gave me beating, not money!

Dear Bexie,

I'D been out of work for a year and was broke. But I'm good-looking and I'm great in bed, so I decided to solve my money troubles by chatting up a rich old babe to look after me.

I scraped together a few quid, went to a nightclub, and before long saw a well-stacked 40-something blonde eyeing me up. One glance at her gold jewellery told me she had money, so I moved in.

It didn't take much effort. She said she was a wealthy widow looking for a toyboy.

Once back at her home she revealed that she was into domination, and expected me to play a submissive role. She changed into kinky leather gear, and told me to get on my knees and give her oral.

I was happy to oblige, expecting her to return the favour. But then she got out a whip and gave me a lashing on my bare buttocks. Then she placed a dog collar round my neck, and made me crawl around naked on a leash.

I left without so much as a w*nk. I'm still broke, but at least I've got my pride.

JS, Lancs

Bexie says...

YOU'RE too haty. What's wrong with a bit of S&M?

'You can't just stick it in and go for it'

MY favourite thing to try in the bedroom is a proper naughty bum-fun session!

I just love anal sex – I always have really intense orgasms from it.

I only discovered this recently and now I can't get enough.

However, there's a knack to really getting me going. You can't just stick it in and go for it.

I love being fingered and licked there – to work up to the main event, as it were.

Then when it finally comes to penetration, I need lots of lube and gently does it at first.

All that will totally relax me and I open up to fully receive my man – and then boy, it's just mind blowing.

I've read that the bumhole is rich in nerve endings and the whole act feels very kinky and taboo.

There's also the element of being submissive, which is a major turn on for me.

The 34E beauty said: "I've had sex a couple of times in hot tubs - either on skiing holidays or during a wild party at a big, posh house."

"One time, at a friend's birthday party, I got carried away with my boyfriend and I could see that we were in full view of the neighbours!"

"I've already started saving up for my own Jacuzzi - I want a nice big one so I can hold sexy hot tub parties with all my gorgeous friends!"

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Small and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of nosh as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

And she still has you guys panting for more. So for all of you out there, here she is!

MARICA HASE

IT'S been a while since sexy Marica Hase appeared in the paper, so when London cabbie Marc Daltry emailed to ask for a snap of the 34-year-old, we figured we couldn't say no.

Marc, 37, said the 32B scorcher, originally from Tokyo and also known as Marika, has everything he desires in a woman – he just hasn't been lucky enough to meet anyone like her yet!

He said: "Every time a cute south east Asian gets in the back of my cab I always hope that it's her."

"She's absolutely out of this world. If only I could meet a 'Marica' of my own – or the real deal would do, of course."

The 73-year-old is to thank for this steamy pic of 34DD babe Donna in her prime.

Harry, from London, told us the Bethnal Green babe is his favourite Sport model he's ever seen in nearly 30 years of buying the paper and added her enormous boobs still turn him on every time he catches a glimpse of them in the paper.

EURO
HOPE:
Davies

Toffees can be Euro stars says Davies

By JOHN ANTHONY

EVERTON midfielder Tom Davies says the Toffees are confident of mounting a challenge for the Champions League places.

Carlo Ancelotti's men fought until the last kick of the game to pull off a 3-3 draw against Man United at Old Trafford.

That extended Everton's unbeaten run away from Goodison Park to seven matches and keeps them right in the top-four hunt.

Davies believes this season will continue to be like a roller-coaster ride and the Blues are right in the mix.

He was impressed at the way his teammates kept fighting against United.

Davies said: "We've got a good group, close-knit."

"We knew at half-time that we weren't good enough so we came out to show ourselves in a much better light – to show a bit more confidence and bravery on the ball and we did that."

It's a credit to the lads as they've been fantastic all season, especially the lads who came in the summer.

"We're getting a really good group together. You saw the fight that we put out there."

"Top four has got to be our goal because it's an unusual season."

"We put in a good performance again today against a team challenging for the top."

"If we keep doing that and taking points off the so-called bigger sides, keep our form in the games we should be winning and get the points there, then the top four is definitely a target."

GOOD RUN: Ancelotti

United gaffer Ole Gunnar Solskjaer has echoed Davies' words.

He thinks Everton are one of the strongest teams in the division and will continue to play well.

The Norwegian said:

"We know that many teams in the Premier League have got good players and Everton more than others."

Everton gaffer Ancelotti is also looking towards the top four.

He added: "What can I say, I am really proud of my team. The spirit is really good."

"We have a good run in this moment. We have to keep this spirit high."

"We think we can only win games with quality, but we are wrong. We can fight and compete with our qualities. I am proud of my team."

LOOKING UP:
Tuchel wants to overtake Liverpool

TUCH UP FOUR KLOPP BATTLE

Chelsea boss has Liverpool in sights

THOMAS Tuchel is full of confidence that Chelsea can make the top four.

By PAUL THOMAS

That would mean catching Liverpool who came out of the weekend just one point ahead in the final Champions League spot.

The Blues are unbeaten since the German took over from Frank Lampard and have won their past three Premier League games.

Last week he was staying tight-lipped about Chelsea's prospects of qualifying for the Champions League.

But that seems to have changed now. Tuchel said: "It is clear that we are responsible now for a situation where we are close to where we want to be."

"We want to try everything to reach the top four and we said this very clear when we started. So now the guys put themselves in the situation where we are the hunters for the teams in front of us and we are close."

Tuchel is trying make sure that his players don't get carried away after stringing some good results together.

He added: "It changes nothing because the next game in the league will be a home game and like everybody else we will be under pressure to continue our run and build on the momentum."

"We will not allow anybody to focus on the future."

Tuchel believes Chelsea can take confidence from beating a Sheffield United side that have been playing well in recent weeks.

He said: "What will it help you if you see that Sheffield are very, very low, but if you analyse the team you see their result against Man United."

"They are bottom of the league, but you have to come here, accept the challenge, play humble."

"This is what you do and from there on it is now the next challenge to improve, play in the FA Cup and the next game and keep on going. The future will take care of itself."

Positive

One player Tuchel will need is Timo Werner who is struggling for goals despite Chelsea's improved form.

The German has just one strike in 19 outings but he showed some positive signs in the weekend win against the Blades.

He admits that such a long goal drought is proving hard to cope with.

But he's adamant that he can turn things around in the next few weeks.

And in the meantime he is still contributing to the team's recent success.

Werner said: "It was a good win for us. It was very difficult the whole game against a very good Sheffield United defending high."

"For myself, again no goal but it is good to see that I can help the team with other things at the moment. I keep going."

"I am happy when we win. When I can make two assists it is also good but as a striker you want to score."

"It is a long time now for me, the longest in my whole career."

"You have to keep going and the goals will come."

Hamilton in it for long haul at happy Mercedes

LEW BEAUTY:
Hamilton is staying with Mercedes

FORMULA ONE

MERCEDES boss Toto Wolff says he's happy that Lewis Hamilton has signed his new deal – even if it's only for one year.

The seven-time world champ has committed himself to the team but his short-term contract has raised a few eyebrows.

Wolff says there are several good reasons why the deal is not running for longer.

And he insists Hamilton is looking beyond the next 12 months with Mercedes.

Wolff said: "First of all there is a substantial regulations change in 2022."

"We also want to see how the world develops and the company."

Postponed

"Because we kept it very late, we wanted to discuss the contract at the end of the season between the Bahrain races, and then Lewis obviously didn't feel well."

"At the end we started out negotiation conversation just before Christmas."

"It was important to get it done as soon as possible and in that respect we thought let's postpone the discussion about 2022 an onwards to a later stage in 2021."

The pandemic continues to have a major impact on Formula One and we could be set for another shortened season."

Wolff points out that there is so much uncertainty around the sport and that's why a longer deal hasn't been done. Both the Mercedes team and Hamilton himself want to see how things pan out.

WOLFF FINE WITH ONE-YEAR DEAL

The team boss added: "There are uncertainties in the world that affect the way the sport can operate that have an influence on our revenue, on TV monies, on sponsorship income."

"Daimler and Mercedes are in a huge transformation towards electric mobility and that means investments."

"So we are living in a financial reality that is very different to what it was a few years ago."

"But having said that we are totally in line, Lewis and me and the wider group in Mercedes, about this situation."

"So there was never any discrepancy in opinion. It was just that we felt we've got to put signature on the 2021 contract because we need to get going and then find some time during 2021, earlier than this time around, to discuss the future."

"And it's not only specifically to 2022 but also beyond and that is not something that we wanted to carve out between Christmas and January."

Wolff also dismissed reports that Hamilton can pick and choose who his co-driver will be. There was also a rumour that the Brit wanted a share of the team's income.

That also appears to be a load of cobblers.

Truth

Wolff said: "On the specific clauses that were out there in the media, I don't know where that came from because none of that is true."

"I actually read about this, I found it an interesting perspective, but the truth is there was not a second of discussion about any driver-specific clause."

"He has never asked for that in the last eight years and it's a team decision."

"The other clause about a revenue split or revenue share – that rumour was baseless too, so none of that was ever part of our discussions during this process."

VETERAN JIMMY'S THE GOAT SAYS JOE

CRICKET By ANDY MILLOM

JOE Root believes James Anderson is the greatest English bowler of all-time after his brilliant display against India.

The Three Lions pulled off a fantastic first Test win in Chennai with the Lancashire veteran at the forefront.

Anderson turned back the clock with a superb spell of reverse swing bowling for figures of 3-17.

Root said: "He is the GOAT of English cricket. He finds ways of constantly challenging himself and getting better."

"At 38 to still be getting better and be as fit as ever is fantastic – he is a great role model. His skill level is as good as anyone you'll ever see."

"He just keeps getting better and better, like a fine wine. His skill levels are as high as ever and his fitness levels."

"He sets a great example for all the younger bowlers in our squad and I can see him playing on for many more years, which is very exciting."

Thrilled

Despite Anderson's bowling exploits, Root was still a deserved man of the match for his double hundred in the first innings.

The skipper is thrilled with the way his team coped with the challenge of winning a Test in India.

He said: "It's been a fantastic five days with the way we came back and executed the game plan, it was really, really pleasing and we'll enjoy this before getting ready to come back again."

India will have been stung by the result and are sure to come back stronger.

Root admits the next three Tests will be a real challenge. He added:

DOUBLE TON: Joe Root

"We know there's a huge amount of hard work ahead of us for the rest of the series."

"There has been a lot of hard work from the guys, a willingness to learn and develop."

"We've said how we wanted to play our cricket, and we've managed to do consistently now."

"Can we turn up next week and do it again? Can we keep finding ways of getting better on surfaces and conditions we're not used to?"

"We've got some very adaptable young players that have come in and very quickly had to learn on the job, in the hardest environments."

FORGET THE TITLE

Reds have no chance says United legend

MANCHESTER United can forget about winning the Premier League title back this season.

That's the verdict of Old Trafford legend Gary Neville who admits his own team are miles behind neighbours City.

United suffered a real

By JOHN ANTHONY

setback when Everton took a point off them at the weekend.

After City walloped champions Liverpool 4-1 at Anfield they now have a five-point lead at the top with a game in hand.

Neville thinks that is too big a gap to bridge — and United don't have what it takes to come out on top this year.

He said: "They're not there yet, I know it's disappointing, but it isn't surprising."

"It has been clear in the last few weeks, drawing against Arsenal drawing against Liverpool losing against Sheffield United, drawing against Everton, that is not going to win you the title. And for me, I don't expect Manchester United to win the title this year.

"We knew a few weeks ago, they're just not quite there in terms of winning the title."

"I never thought they were, I never thought that because the performances weren't good enough. And there just was something missing."
